One partner providing everything your business needs to succeed

SCHNEIDER GROUP has been helping businesses to expand into Russia and the CIS since 2003. Inspired by economic and political changes in Russia at that time, our founder Ulf Schneider set up SCHNEIDER GROUP to help international companies enter the region. Today, SCHNEIDER GROUP has offices in Armenia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Germany, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Lithuania, Poland, Russia, Ukraine and Uzbekistan.

Local expertise, global best practices

Local expertise is the key to performing well in a new region. Providing expert consulting and first-class business support services, we efficiently guide our customers through the complex process of entering new markets and equip them with essential resources for success.

We help our customers establish branches and subsidiaries that are fully transparent to international management and compliant with local legislation, while our experts offer valuable advice on best practices to optimize processes, mitigate risks, and cut costs.

Wide range of regions and services

We help customers to expand into or within Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Lithuania, Poland, Russia, Ukraine and Uzbekistan.

Building core business in a new market is the priority for our customers. While customers focus on establishing a strong presence in their new region, we take care of supporting functions such as accounting, personnel recruitment, and payroll calculations.
